OPIC DESSAIL Attrials  DATE PREPARED 25 October 1949  SOXI-HUM  DATE PREPARED 25 October 1949  EMARKS  This document is breaty regarded to CONFIDENTIAL Accordance of the Confidence of the Conf		COSTICATION_	CO TEO. /US CLIEBES OF	fN
DATE PREPARED 25 October 1949  SEMARKS    This programment is hearty registed to the convenient of the convenient is hearty registed to the convenient in hearty registed to the convenient register to the convenient register the convenient register the convenient register that the convenient register the convenient register that register the convenient register that register the convenient register that register the register register that register the convenient register that register that register the convenient register that register that register that register the convenient register that register that register that register the convenient register that register that register that register the convenient register that register that register that register the convenient register that register that register that register that register that register that register the convenient register that register that register that register the convenient register that register that register that register the convenient register that register the convenient register that regist	CUNTR		REPORT
DATE PREPARED 25 October 1949  EMARKS    This document is Newby regressed to Corrobortian in Newby Dates and the Chinagal Males.    September 1949	OPIC	_DESSAI( Attfield		_
AGES P ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)    DATE PREPARED   25 October 1949		mm. 1999 - Marie M
AGES_P_ENCLOSURES (NO. 2 TYPE)  EMARKS    This document is hereby regulated to conventional accordance in the parked in tive rows on the 3 utherstory edges of the DESSAU (H 52/E 06) airfield. Three planes were without wings.    September 1949		and the first of the first of the second section of the second se		-
AGES_P_ENCLOSURES (NO. 2 TYPE)  EMARKS    This document is hereby regulated to conventional accordance in the parked in tive rows on the 3 utherstory edges of the DESSAU (H 52/E 06) airfield. Three planes were without wings.    September 1949			L
EMARKS    Interval   I				50X1-HUM
EMARKS    Interval   I			DATE ODERADED 25 Octobe	an 1949
EMARKS.    Instruction   Second   Secon			DATE PREPAREIT
EMARKS    Institute   Institut			-
September 1949  1. Thirty-nine single-engine aircraft were parked in live rows on the sutheastern edge of the DESSAU (H 52/E 06) airfield. Three planes were without wings.  8. September 1949  2. Forty to sixty single-engine conventional aircraft were parked in an open square on the northeastern edge of the DSSAU airfield. Therefield. There was yellow with black longitudinal stripss (presumably concrete).  8. to 15 September 1949  3. About 80 low-wing monoplanes, some with elliptical wings, others with trapscidal wings, and 10 biplanes were parked on the northern edge and eastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying.  4. The reconditioned buildings of the former June Plant were observed. The soxi-hirds of the parked on the southeastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying.  5. An estimated 60 to 70 fighters with dihedral wings were parked on the southeastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying. The trucks were destroyed a soviet Air Force unit.  22 September 1949  5. An estimated 60 to 70 fighters with dihedral wings were parked on the southeastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying. Trucks were field. There was no flying. Trucks were parked on the southeastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying. Trucks were destroyed. About five hundred Soviet Air Force troops were quertered in Alfren.  CLASSIFICATION SECRET-CONTROL/US without Air Force troops were quertered in Alfren.	AGES	ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)_	-
Archivist of Review Intelligence to the United States.    September 1949   September 1949	EMARKS
Archivist of Review Date: 2008  5 September 1949  1. Thirty-nine single-engine aircraft were parked in live rows on the sutheastern edge of the DESSAU (H 52/E 06) airfield. Three planes were without wings.  8 September 1949  2. Forty to sixty single-engine conventional aircraft were parked in an open square on the northeastern edge of the DSSAU airfield. Therefield. Therefiel
September 1949  1. Thirty-nine single-engine aircraft were parked in live rows on the sutheastern edge of the DESSAU (H 52/E 06) airfield. Three planes were without wings.  8. September 1949  2. Forty to sixty single-engine conventional aircraft were parked in an open square on the northeastern edge of the DSSAU airfield. Therefield. There was yellow with black longitudinal stripss (presumably concrete).  8. to 15 September 1949  3. About 80 low-wing monoplanes, some with elliptical wings, others with trapscidal wings, and 10 biplanes were parked on the northern edge and eastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying.  4. The reconditioned buildings of the former June Plant were observed. The soxi-hirds of the parked on the southeastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying.  5. An estimated 60 to 70 fighters with dihedral wings were parked on the southeastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying. The trucks were destroyed a soviet Air Force unit.  22 September 1949  5. An estimated 60 to 70 fighters with dihedral wings were parked on the southeastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying. Trucks were field. There was no flying. Trucks were parked on the southeastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying. Trucks were destroyed. About five hundred Soviet Air Force troops were quertered in Alfren.  CLASSIFICATION SECRET-CONTROL/US without Air Force troops were quertered in Alfren.		This docum	ent is hard	The state of the second st
Next Review Date: 2008  1. Thirty-nine single-engine aircraft were parked in live rows on the sutheastern edge of the DESSAU (N. 52/E 06) airfield. Three planes were without wings.  8 September 1949  2. Forty to sixty single-engine conventional aircraft were parked in an opon square on the northeastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. Two-thirds of the runway looked black and one-third, toward the west, was yellow with black longitudinal stripes (presumably concrete).  8 to 15 September 1949  3. About 80 low-win; monoplanes, some with elliptical win; s, others with trapezoidal win; s, and 10 biplanes were parked on the northern edge and eastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying.  4. The reconditioned buildings of the former June Plant were occupied by a Soviet Air Force unit. trucks were coupled by a Soviet Air Force unit.  22 September 1949  5. An estimated 80 to 70 fighters with dihedral wings were parked on the northern arrow-pauge field relived line, however, was being used for hauling building material.  22 September 1949  5. An estimated 80 to 70 fighters with dihedral wings were parked on the southeastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flyin; trucks trucks were proceeding toward the field. * The E-W runway was extended by about 50X1-HUM 1,600 feet toward the west. The spur track was reconditioned. All hangars were destroyed. About five hundred Soviet Air Force troops were quartered in ALTEN.				annen. » Judine menementen er synerementen entjermenten en
5 September 1949  1. Thirty-nine single-engine aircraft were parked in live rows on the sutheastern edge of the DESSAU (N 52/E 06) airfield. Three planes were without wings.  8 September 1949  2. Forty to sixty single-engine conventional aircraft were parked in an open square on the northeastern edge of the D SSAU airfield. Two-thirds of the runway looked black and one-third, toward the west, was yellow with black longitudinal stripes (presumably concrete).  8 to 15 September 1949  3. About 80 low-win; monoplanes, some with elliptical wings, others with trapezoidal wings, and 10 biplanes were parked on the northern edge and eastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying.  4. The reconditioned buildings of the former Juno Plant were observed. The SOX1-HUM trucks were occupied by a Soviet Air Force unit.  Were observed. The sound on the narrow-rauge field railroad line, however, was being used for hauling building material.  22 September 1949  5. OX1-HUM on the southeastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying. Trucks were proceeding toward the field. The E-W runway was extended by about 50X1-HUM toward the field. The E-W runway was extended by about 50X1-HUM hangars were destroyed. About five hundred Soviet Air Force troops were quartered in Alleien.		i dichivist of	intelligen the l
1. Thirty-nine single-engine aircraft were parked in five rows on the 3 utheastern edge of the DESSAU (N 52/E 06) airfield. Three planes were without wings.  8 September 1949  2. Forty to sixty single-engine conventional aircraft were parked in an open square on the northeastern edge of the D SSAU airfield. Two-thirds of the runway looked black and one-third, toward the west, was yellow with black longitudinal stripes (presumably concrete).  8 to 15 September 1949  3. About 80 low-win; monoplanes, some with elliptical wings, others with trapezoidal wings, and 10 biplanes were parked on the northern edge and eastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying.  4. The reconditioned buildings of the former Juno Plant were observed. The force unit. trucks were occupied by a Soviet Air Force unit. trucks construction sheds south of the runway were torn down. The narrow-range field reilroad line, however, was being used for hauling building material.  22 September 1949  5. An estimated 60 to 70 fighters with dihedral wings were parked on the southeastern edge of the DESSAU airfierd. There was no flying, trucks were died by about 50X1-HUM 1,600 feet toward the west. The spur track was reconditioned. All hangars were destroyed. About five hundred Soviet Air Force troops were quartered in Almen.		Next Review	Date: 2009	rettina eriniya a digir - i ili yariyin didan maratinda a galiriyda ili kananin ili adaliya a dilaya kananin i
1. Thirty-nine single-engine aircraft were parked in five rows on the s utheastern edge of the DESSAU (1. 52/E 06) airfield. Three planes were without wings.  8 September 1949  2. Forty to sixty single-engine conventional aircraft were parked in an open square on the northeastern edge of the D SSAU airfield. Two-thirds of the runway looked black and one-third, toward the west, was yellow with black longitudinal stripes (presumably concrete).  8 to 15 September 1949  3. About 80 low-win; monoplanes, some with elliptical wines, others with trapezoidal wines, and 10 biplanes were parked on the northern edge and eastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying.  4. The reconditioned buildings of the former Jume Plant were occupied by a Soviet Air Force unit.  1 were occupied by a Soviet Air Force unit.  2 September 1949  5 OX1-HUM  5 An estimated 60 to 70 fighters with dihedral wings were parked on the southeastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying, trucks were done to see the proceeding toward the field. The E-W runway was extended by about 50X1-HUM 1,600 feet toward the west. The spur track was reconditioned. All hangars were destroyed. About five hundred Soviet Air Force troops were quartered in ALFEN.	[.		2008 on the sutheastern edge of the DESSAU (N. 52/E 06) airfield.  Three planes were without wings.  8 September 1949  2. Forty to sixty single-engine conventional aircraft were parked in an opon square on the northeastern edge of the D SSAU airfield. Two-thirds of the runway looked black and one-third, toward the west, was yellow with black longitudinal stripes (presumably concrete).  8 to 15 September 1949  3. About 80 low-wing monoplanes, some with elliptical wings, others with trapezoidal wings, and 10 biplanes were parked on the northern edge and eastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying.  4. The reconditioned buildings of the former Juno Plant were occupied by a Soviet Air Force unit. trucks construction sheds south of the runway were torn down. The narrow-gauge field railroad line, however, was being used for hauling building material.  22 September 1949  5. An estimated 60 to 70 fighters with dihedral wings were parked on the southeastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying. trucks were deeded of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying. trucks were deeded of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying. trucks were deeded of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying. The beautiful were proceeding toward the field. The E-W runway was extended by about 50X1-HUM 1,600 feet toward the west. The spur track was reconditioned. All hangars were destroyed. About five hundred Soviet Air Force troops were quartered in Almen.		5 September 1949
Three planes were without wings.  8 September 1949  2. Forty to sixty single-engine conventional aircraft were parked in an open square on the northeastern edge of the D SSAU airfield. Two-thirds of the runway looked black and one-third, toward the west, was yellow with black longitudinal stripes (presumably concrete).  8 to 15 September 1949  3. About 80 low-wing monoplanes, some with elliptical wings, others with trapezoidal wings, and 10 biplanes were parked on the northern edge and eastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying.  4. The reconditioned buildings of the former June Plant    were occupied by a Soviet Air Force unit.	1.	Thirty-nine single-engine a	ircraft were parked in live	Mobile
2. Forty to sixty single-engine conventional aircraft were parked in an open square on the northeastern edge of the D SSAU airfield. Two-thirds of the runway looked black and one-third, toward the west, was yellow with black longitudinal stripes (presumably concrete).  8 to 15 September 1949  3. About 80 low-wing monoplanes, some with elliptical wings, others with trapezoidal wings, and 10 biplanes were parked on the northern edge and eastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying.  4. The reconditioned buildings of the former Juno Plant were occupied by a Soviet Air Force unit.  1. were occupied by a Soviet Air Force unit.  2. were observed. The southeastern edge of the runway were torn down. The narrow-gauge field reilroad line, however, was being used for hauling building material.  2. September 1949  5. An estimated 60 to 70 fighters with dihedral wings were parked on the southeastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying, trucks were forceeding toward the field. * The E-W runway was extended by about 50X1-HUM 1,600 feet toward the west. The spur track was reconditioned. All hangars were destroyed. About five hundred Soviet Air roroe troops were quartered in Alfien.		on the slutheastern edge of	the DESSAU (M 52/E 06) airt	Ciela.
in an open square on the northeastern edge of the D SSAU air- field. Two-thirds of the runway looked black and one-third, toward the west, was yellow with black longitudinal stripes (presumably concrete).  8 to 15 September 1949  3. About 80 low-wing monoplanes, some with elliptical wings, others with trapezoidal wings, and 10 biplanes were parked on the north- ern edge and eastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying.  4. The reconditioned buildings of the former Jumo Plant  were occupied by a Soviet Air Force unit.  trucks construction sheds south of the runway were torn down. The narrow-gauge field railroad line, however, was being used for hauling building material.  22 September 1949  50X1-HUM  5. An estimated 60 to 70 fighters with dihedral wings were parked on the southeastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying. trucks trucks construction sheds south of the pursual was extended by about 1,600 feet toward the west. The spur track was reconditioned. All hangars were destroyed. About five hundred Soviet Air Force troops were quartered in ALFEN.  CLASSIFICATION SECRET-CONTEOD/US MILITALS ONLY Document No.	7.	8 September 1949
3. About 80 low-wing monoplanes, some with elliptical wings, others with trapezoidal wings, and 10 biplanes were parked on the northern edge and eastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying.  4. The reconditioned buildings of the former Jumo Plant were occupied by a Soviet Air Force unit.  trucks were occupied by a Soviet Air Force unit.  trucks were observed. The construction sheds south of the runway were torn down. The narrow-gauge field railroad line, however, was being used for hauling building material.  22 September 1949  5. An estimated 60 to 70 fighters with dihedral wings were parked on the southeastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying. trucks were proceeding toward the field. The E-W runway was extended by about 50X1-HUN 1,600 feet toward the west. The spur track was reconditioned. All hangars were destroyed. About five hundred Soviet Air Force troops were quartered in AITEN.	2.	in an open square on the nor field. Two-thirds of the r toward the west, was yellow	rtheastern edge of the D SSA	Wairwith trapezoidal wings, and 10 biplanes were parked on the northern erm edge and eastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying.  4. The reconditioned buildings of the former Juno Plant were occupied by a Soviet Air Force unit. The sox1-HUN construction sheds south of the runway were observed. The sox1-HUN narrow-gauge field railroad line, however, was being used for hauling building material.  22 September 1949  50X1-HUM  5. An estimated 60 to 70 fighters with dihedral wings were parked on the southeastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying. trucks were proceeding toward the field. * The E-W runway was extended by about 1,600 feet toward the west. The spur track was reconditioned. All hangars were destroyed. About five hundred Soviet Air Force troops were quartered in ALFEN.  CLASSIFICATION SECRET-CONTROL/US AIR JOINES ONLY Document No. 209		8 to 15 September 1949
trucks were occupied by a Soviet Air Force unit.  trucks were observed. The construction sheds south of the runway were torn down. The narrow-gauge field reilroad line, however, was being used for hauling building material.  22 September 1949  50X1-HUM  5. An estimated 60 to 70 fighters with dihedral wings were parked on the southeastern edge of the DESSAD airfield. There was no flying. trucks were proceeding toward the field. The E-W runway was extended by about 50X1-HUN 1,600 feet toward the west. The spur track was reconditioned. All hangars were destroyed. About five hundred Soviet Air Force troops were quartered in AIREN.  CLASSIFICATION SECRET-CONTROL/US ONLY Document to the construction of	3.	with trapezoidal wings, and ern edge and eastern edge of	10 biplanes were parked on	the north
trucks were occupied by a Soviet Air Force unit.  trucks were observed. The construction sheds south of the runway were torn down. The narrow-gauge field reilroad line, however, was being used for hauling building material.  22 September 1949  50X1-HUM  5. An estimated 60 to 70 fighters with dihedral wings were parked on the southeastern edge of the DESSAD airfield. There was no flying. trucks were proceeding toward the field. The E-W runway was extended by about 50X1-HUN 1,600 feet toward the west. The spur track was reconditioned. All hangars were destroyed. About five hundred Soviet Air Force troops were quartered in AIREN.  CLASSIFICATION SECRET-CONTROL/US ONLY Document to the construction of	4.	The reconditioned buildings	of the former Juno Plant
5. An estimated 60 to 70 fighters with dihedral wings were parked on the southeastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying. trucks were proceeding toward the field. The E-W runway was extended by about 50X1-HUN 1,600 feet toward the west. The spur track was reconditioned. All hangars were destroyed. About five hundred Soviet Air Force troops were quertered in ALFEN.  CLASSIFICATION SECRET-CONTROL/US OF AIR INTERNS ONLY Document to the parket of the		trucks   were occupied by trucks   construction sheds south of narrow-gauge field railroad	a Soviet Air Force unit.  were observe the runway were torm down	The
5. An estimated 60 to 70 fighters with dihedral wings were parked on the southeastern edge of the DESSAU airfield. There was no flying. trucks were proceeding toward the field. The E-W runway was extended by about 50X1-HUN 1,600 feet toward the west. The spur track was reconditioned. All hangars were destroyed. About five hundred Soviet Air Force troops were quartered in ALTEN.  CLASSIFICATION SECRET-CONTROL/US PRIJETALS ONLY Document No. CHANGE FOR THE PRIME SOLLY CO. TO CHANGE FOR THE PRIME SOLLY CO. TO CHANGE FOR THE PRIME SOLLY CO. TO CHANGE FOR THE PRIME SOLLY CO. THE PRIME		22 September 1949		50X1-HUM
Document Wo	5.	on the southeastern edge of flying. trucks toward the field. * The El,600 feet toward the west. All hangars were destroyed.	the DESSAU airfield. There were proce W runway was extended by ab The spur track was recondi About five hundred Soviet	parked was no eding out 50X1-HUM
Document Wo			∼ .
Document Wo			L GONTE O (TO)
NO CHANCE IN TOTAL		CLASSIFICATION SECRE		69
CONFIDENTIAL Class. CHAVEED TO: TEXT		P DESIGN A	NO CHANGE In Class	· ·
WALLE TO A PERSON OF THE PERSO		CONTRACTOR	Class CHANGED TA	È a
Auth: DDA REG. 77/14cd

Date: 2 2 MAY 197 50X1-HUM

Declassified in Part - Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2011/12/14 : CIA-RDP82-00457R003700270010-5

Declass	ified in Part - Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2011/12/14 : CIA-RDP82-00457R0037002700	10-5
A SECTION OF THE SECT	S S S S S S S S S S S S S S S S S S S	50X1-HUM
e e	Comment:	50X1-HUM
*	air unit in LESSAU had come from BUANDIS.	50X1-HUM
	This is the first occupation by an air unit of the DESAt airfield since the completion of the construction work. It is inferred that two fighter regiments are stationed there.	50X1-HUM 50X1-HUM
		50X1-HUM

SECT-COMMINOL/US OFFICIALS ONLY